

Community Support Worker

Job Summary

This position is an opportunity to support a friendly and active mid 30-year-old male in the community. You will be spending time facilitating physical activity and planning and supporting daily community inclusion activities with this individual. The Community Support Worker reports directly to the family for day-to-day support questions, in addition to meeting training requirements as mandated by Community Living British Columbia and administered by Lifetime Networks.

Hours:

- 7 hours a week as follows:
 - Sunday 10:00am-4:00pm
- Schedule may change based on the needs of the individual

Responsibilities Include:

- Identify social, recreational and learning opportunities in the community that will meet the individual's needs and match their individual interests. Develop and set up opportunities for individual to participate in community through initiatives such as volunteering, working on joint projects with other community groups, etc.
- Planning and facilitating daily physical activities
- Communication with family and with Lifetime Networks Coordinator
- Good written and verbal reporting skills documenting the progress of the individual
- Provide emotional support to individual and monitor well-being. Provide positive support, role modelling and feedback. Advocate with the individual in support of their inclusion in the community.

Qualifications:

- Diploma or equivalent experience working with individuals with a disability
- Training and/or experience supporting individuals with ASD, and other mental health issues
- Must have a reliable vehicle

- Valid BC Class 5 Driver's License
- Minimum 3 million dollar car insurance
- Current Standard First Aid and CPR C

Contact:

Please contact Lifetime Networks (ashley.goodwin@lnv.ca) or Gerard @ 250-514-2597 to learn more and apply for this position.

LIFETIME NETWORKS IS AN INCLUSIVE AND DIVERSE EMPLOYER! We look forward to hearing from you.